

Family tree

Reflection on one's cultural background and thought that one is not typical member of its own culture

Aim: discovering one's cultural background, increasing awareness of sense of not belonging to only one culture

Assignment description:

Preparing the quasi - family tree (at least three generations). Students should go back as far as they can with the dates, family names, countries and regions of origin, occupations.

Outcomes:

reflection on one's cultural background and thought that one is not typical member of its own culture